

“Evidence-based approach in Erasmus+ and European Solidarity Corps: Towards Evidence-Based Future of Erasmus+”

25-26 November 2025, Warsaw (Poland)

Draft agenda

Day 1 (9:30 – 17:30)

Introduction

Keynote speech

Presentation session I: Current challenges in Erasmus+: perspectives from practitioners and policymakers

- Perspectives from policy makers and practitioners on the key challenges facing Erasmus+.

Coffee break

Presentation session II: Research meets practice: lessons learned across Erasmus+ sectors

- Insights from research on mobility and cooperation in school education, higher education, VET, youth and adult learning.

Lunch

Workshop sessions:

- Interactive session to explore and prioritize the identified challenges.
- Sector-based group work: how can we use evidence to improve future programme design?

Summary of the workshop sessions in plenary

Day 2 (9:30 – 15:00)

Introduction to Day 2

Presentation session III: Evidence-informed approach in practice – case studies

- How research findings are (or could be) used to inform programme development, implementation and evaluation.

Coffee break

Panel discussion: From data to policy - how can stakeholders and policy makers better use research findings to shape the future of Erasmus+?

Closing remarks

Lunch